MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP FUNDS

Becky Stowe Memorial Scholarship (new) – This scholarship is designed to assist financially challenged custodial parents who are trying to pursue an education. It can be used for tuition, child-care, or living expenses as long as the recipient is a student at a college, university, technical or trade school or working on a GED. Recipient may receive up to $1,000, depending on available funds and at the discretion of Scholarship Committee. Scholarship may be given up to 2X each year (July for fall semester and November for spring semester), if funds are available. Applicant must be a member of WPC or have a child/children enrolled in WCDC for the period of the scholarship award. Relatives of active WPC members may also be considered for any of these scholarships if funds are available. All scholarships are awarded at the discretion of the Scholarship Committee. Application must be submitted by May 1st for fall semester and by October 1st for spring semester. Applicant must submit to face-to-face interview with Scholarship Committee and may be required to “pay it forward” with community service. GPA and financial need may also apply.

Claire Stokes Scholarship – This scholarship is designed to assist a beginning college student with expenses associated with pursuing an education at a college, university, technical or trade school. Applicants must be a member of WPC and must submit an application by May 1st. Scholarships will be awarded in June. Recipient may receive up to $500, depending on available funds and at the discretion of Scholarship Committee.

Ron Baughman Scholarship – This scholarship is designed to assist a continuing student—one already attending an undergraduate program or entering/attending a graduate program or embarking on other post-graduate studies. Scholarship may be given up to 2X each year (July for fall semester and November for spring semester), if funds are available. Recipient may receive up to $1,000, depending on available funds and at the discretion of Scholarship Committee. Applicant must be a member of WPC and must submit an application form by May 1st for fall semester and by October 1st for spring semester. GPA, church activities and other considerations may apply.
